Granite Point Mortgage Trust Inc. Announces 2020 Dividend Tax Information

NEW YORK, January 28, 2021 – Granite Point Mortgage Trust Inc. (NYSE: GPMT) (“GPMT,” “Granite Point” or the “Company”) announced today the tax treatment of common stock dividends declared in 2020. This information is provided to assist stockholders with tax reporting requirements related to dividend distribution of taxable income by Granite Point. Stockholders should review the 2020 tax statements received from their brokerage firms or other institutions to ensure that the statements agree with the information provided below. Additionally, as each stockholder’s tax situation may be different, stockholders are encouraged to consult with their own professional tax advisor with respect to their individual tax consequences.

Tax Treatment of the Distributions

The Federal income tax classification of Granite Point’s 2020 distributions as it is expected to be reported on Form 1099-DIV is set forth in the following table.

Granite Point is required to report the portion of its 2020 dividends that are treated as excess inclusion income for federal income tax purposes. No portion of Granite Point’s 2020 dividend distributions are expected to consist of excess inclusion income, which may be treated as unrelated business taxable income (UBTI) and subject to special tax reporting for certain tax-exempt investors.

(1) As Granite Point’s aggregate 2019 cash distributions exceeded its 2019 earnings and profits, a portion of the January 2020 cash distribution declared in the fourth quarter of 2019 was treated as a 2020 distribution for federal income tax purposes and not included on the 2019 Form 1099. If you were a stockholder of record as of December 31, 2019, $0.3297 was reported on your 2019 Form 1099 and $0.0903 is reported on your 2020 Form 1099.

(2) Qualified Dividends shows the portion of the amount in Box 1a that may be eligible for capital gains tax rates.

(3) Section 199A Dividends shows the portion of the amount in Box 1a that may be eligible for the 20% qualified business income deduction under Section 199.

Pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, dividends declared by a real estate investment trust (REIT) during the last three months of a calendar year that are payable to stockholders of record on a specified date in such three-month period, but which are actually paid during January of the following calendar year, are considered paid on December 31st of the calendar year in which the dividends were declared, to the extent of the REIT’s distributable earnings and profits.
