

Granite Point Mortgage Trust Inc. Announces $590 million Refinancing of Legacy Funding Vehicles, Incremental $50 million Repayment of Term Loan Borrowings and Preliminary Financial Results for First Quarter 2022

NEW YORK, April 28, 2022 – Granite Point Mortgage Trust Inc. (NYSE: GPMT) (“GPMT,” “Granite Point” or the “Company”) today announced that it refinanced approximately $590 million of senior loans that had been previously financed through two of the Company’s legacy funding vehicles, GPMT 2018-FL1 CRE CLO and its term financing facility with Goldman Sachs, both of which had been significantly de-levered through loan repayments. These transactions generated approximately $180 million in net proceeds to the Company after repaying approximately $232 million of borrowings outstanding under those two legacy facilities. The Company today used a portion of the net proceeds to repay an additional $50 million of the remaining $100 million principal amount outstanding under its senior secured term loan facilities.

“We are very excited to announce these actions, as we continue to execute on the strategic priorities we outlined for 2022 earlier in the year,” said Jack Taylor, President and Chief Executive Officer of Granite Point. “The refinancings released a substantial amount of capital on favorable terms, which we intend to use to make new loan investments, further repay higher cost corporate debt, and for other corporate purposes, as we continue to actively manage our balance sheet. This significant step is part of the ongoing actions we have been taking to improve the efficiency of our balance sheet. We expect these activities to improve our run-rate profitability by lowering our funding costs and generating additional income from new loan investments; and they should help reduce the impact of higher short-term interest rates on our earnings and better position us to benefit from rising rates in the second half of the year. Supported by the strong performance of our investment portfolio and positive credit migration, we believe Granite Point is well-positioned to create value for our stockholders.”

The Company today also announced its preliminary unaudited financial results for the three months ended March 31, 2022, which are based on currently available information.

Reconciliation of Estimated Net Income Attributable to Common Stockholders Per Basic Share to Estimated Distributable Earnings Per Basic Share

The table below reconciles an estimated range of net income attributable to common stockholders per basic share, to an estimated range of Distributable Earnings per basic share for the three months ended March 31, 2022.

Reconciliation of GAAP net income per share to Distributable Earnings⁽¹⁾ per share:

Estimated GAAP net income per basic common share	$0.01 to $0.03
Adjustments:
Provision for credit losses	0.06
Loss on early extinguishment of debt	0.11
Non-cash equity compensation	0.04
Estimated Distributable Earnings⁽¹⁾ per basic common share before write-off	$0.23 to $0.25
Write-off on loan sale	(0.19)
Estimated Distributable Earnings⁽¹⁾ per basic common share	$0.04 to $0.06

(1) Distributable Earnings is a measure that is not prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”). We believe providing Distributable Earnings on a supplemental basis to our net income (loss) and cash flow from operating activities, as determined in accordance with GAAP, is helpful to stockholders in assessing the overall run-rate operating performance of our business.

We use Distributable Earnings to evaluate our performance, excluding the effects of certain transactions and GAAP adjustments we believe are not necessarily indicative of our current loan portfolio and operations. For reporting purposes, we define Distributable Earnings as net income (loss) attributable to our stockholders, computed in accordance with GAAP, excluding: (i) non-cash equity compensation expenses; (ii) depreciation and amortization; (iii) any unrealized gains (losses) or other similar non-cash items that are included in net income for the applicable reporting period (regardless of whether such items are included in other comprehensive income (loss) or in net income for such period); and (iv) certain non-cash items and one-time expenses. Distributable Earnings may also be adjusted from time to time for reporting purposes to exclude one-time events pursuant to changes in GAAP and certain other material non-cash income or expense items approved by a majority of our independent directors. The exclusion of depreciation and amortization from the calculation of Distributable Earnings only applies to debt investments related to real estate to the extent we foreclose upon the property or properties underlying such debt investments.

Distributable Earnings does not represent net income (loss) or cash flow from operating activities and should not be considered as an alternative to GAAP net income (loss), or an indication of our GAAP cash flows from operations, a measure of our liquidity, or an indication of funds available for our cash needs. In addition, our methodology for calculating Distributable Earnings may differ from the methodologies employed by other companies to calculate the same or similar supplemental performance measures, and, accordingly, our reported Distributable Earnings may not be comparable to the Distributable Earnings reported by other companies.
